Description

Oil on hardboard signed lower left "C. Castelli" representing Le Lac du Cornu in Chamonix in 1937. Lac Cornu is a lake in France located in the Alps. At the back of the painting, there is also a painter's label and a stamp.
Clément Castelli: painter, member of the Jury of Mountain painters since 1927. He was born in Premia in the Piedmont region, from a family from the village of Coggia in the town of Varzo in the same province. He came to live in Paris in 1880 where he attended school. He then shared his life between France (Paris and the Alps) and Italy. Clément Castelli is above all a mountain painter.
