Description

Rectangular tablecloth with generous dimensions, in fine linen, the edge is entirely hand embroidered with garlands of leaves alternating with theater masks.

If it is an Italian embroidery dating from the first half of the 20th century.

The tablecloth is solid and in good general condition: no holes, no repairs; nevertheless, having been used, it has some small stains and halos of stains previously treated in the wash: photos of certain stains are published at the end but for purely indicative purposes because the stains are numerous but not very visible.
