Description

Very rare dimensions for this Louis Philippe style mirror in gilded wood. 261 cm high and 50.5 cm wide! This mirror comes from a beautiful bourgeois house in the Limousin countryside, it was custom-made during its construction. Louis Philippe style, it is very simple in architecture with an ogee molding. The original mirror is dated 1899 on the back. The parquet flooring has been replaced by plywood. Some chips and missing gilding. Period late 19th century, 1899. Given the unusual dimensions, delivery will only be made by me in France, contact me for a quote, you can also pick up this mirror on site in Limoges and for foreign buyers, I am available to your carrier.
