Description

Charming bookcase in solid walnut molded and carved in high relief decorated with roses. It opens with two glass and paneled doors in the lower part, the cornice is rounded on the front and ogee molded laterally, the sides have flat strip panels, it rests on a base with overhanging legs. The interior is equipped with four modular shelves, the windows are beveled, keyholes and keys in gilded bronze. Rare template, very good quality of cabinetmaking and superb patina! Attributed to Camille Gauthier in Nancy Art Nouveau Period
