Description

Immerse yourself in the moving beauty of this important carved and polychrome wooden sculpture depicting the iconic scene of the Pieta. Probably produced in Spain in the 19th century, this work is a striking testimony to the sacred art and artistic mastery of the time. The sculpture, of exceptional quality of execution, captures the delicacy and devotion of the scene of the Pieta, where the Virgin Mary holds the body of Jesus Christ after the crucifixion. Despite some minor losses, as shown in the attached photos, these do not significantly affect the value or beauty of the work. Measuring 108x60x55cm including the wooden base, this sculpture has an imposing presence that will attract attention in any space. The expressiveness of the figures and the attention to detail testify to the talent of the
