Description

Very beautiful and large Beaded Mirror in gilded wood from the Regency Period. The mirror and the glazing beads are in a Bérain style baguette frame decorated with foliage and flowers at each corner. The ornate, is topped with a large palmette and is decorated with flowers, flower baskets, and acanthus leaves.
Main glass is beveled with its period dark pau tain, the two side glazing beads are also beveled.
Beautiful period gilding, with very few repairs.
Some wear of the tin to report in the pediment, and the main mirror but the mirrors are from the period, this is almost normal..
