Description

Ring in 750/° yellow gold (18 KT, eagle's head hallmark), adorned with a beautiful malachite cabochon, which presents the characteristic veins of this material with a general rendering and distribution of color that is nevertheless uniform. The stone is closed set and surrounded by a succession of three gradient rings, the middle of which is textured by chiseling. The ornate basket brings a discreet sophistication to this solitaire ring with a simple and refined aesthetic. Malachite matches the colors of the year's trend books, and has made a strong comeback within the major jewelry and watchmaking houses, which have also reintegrated it in the form of dials in watches.... Weight of malachite estimated at approximately 20 carats Gross weight: 8.69 g Finger size: 56 - can be modified at your
