230 EUR

Signature : Emile Puiforcat

Period : 19th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Silver metal

Description

Emile Puiforcat four-piece service in its original case in the shape of Maison Blisson et Langlois which was located 38 rue St Ferréol in Marseille. Filled silver handles with a beautiful and fine carving of palmettes, acanthus leaves on each side with a frieze of water leaves all around. Minerva 1st title hallmark on each handle and goldsmith Puiforcat's hallmark "EP and a penknife" on one handle. Very finely numbered HG or G H. The serving part, in silver-plated metal, of a very beautiful shape is nicely chiselled with the goldsmith's mark on each element. Dimensions: length from 17 cm to 19.5 cm. Box: 22 cm x 21 cm Very good condition. This service is old and has been used; it therefore has very slight marks and scratches from use. Many other objects to discover in my stand at the antique fairs
