Description

Regency chest of drawers in walnut opening with three rows of drawers on a curved facade. The three drawers are largely and generously molded and furnished with original bronze pull handles and keyholes. The side panels are straight and the front uprights hollowed out with a molding. This chest of drawers is topped with a faux marble painted in the "Rouge du Languedoc" style. The top is bordered on three sides with a corbin beak. Furniture restored and presented for sale in excellent condition. However, we will note a missing part on the left handle of the lower drawer. Ile de France work from the first half of the 18th century
