Description

Large oil on canvas painted by Marguerite Jacquelin* representing the portrait of a young woman from the Belle Epoque wearing a pink dress with bows, probably an elegant Bordeaux woman (perhaps a woman artist), in a gilded frame decorated with flowers and foliage, vintage around 1900, late 19th-early 20th centuries. This painting is in good condition, exceptional quality. Signed lower left. Note: some tiny accidents and wear on the frame, wear and tear on the paint, see photos. * Marguerite Jacquelin, born Margueritte Jacqueline (1850-1941) is a French painter. Established in Bordeaux, Marguerite Jacqueline became known in the mid-1870s under the name Jacquelin. From around 1883 she lived at 2, rue Bardineau in Bordeaux with her sister. Marguerite Jacquelin learned to paint from
