

Vermeiled Silver Chalice Paten Early 19th Century

280 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Sterling silver

Diameter : 14 cm

Description

Chalice paten in vermeiled silver from the early 19th century. The front is vermilined, very slight wear to the vermeil only on the inner edge of the wing. The back is engraved with the initials IHS surmounted by a cross. A small deformation on the wing indicated by an arrow on a detail photo, logical micro-scratches given the age of the object. Paris medium guarantee hallmark. Worn goldsmith's mark. 1st title hallmark on the second rooster (1809-1819). Weight: 110 grams. Delivery: EUR10 for mainland France.
