Particular French decorative panel dated 1981.

Artwork on embossed, chiseled and painted copper depicting an interesting subject with tribal elements, figures and masks of great dynamism and pleasant impact. Nailed panel on a wooden frame, an object of considerable weight, to be fixed to the wall with two dowels. Work signed and dated lower right (see photo), signature under study. Fabulous decor panel ideal for placing in a living room, study or long corridor. Copper with small drops of color and signs of oxidation (see photo) in beautiful patina. Structurally sound, in good condition with some signs of wear.
