Description

- Catherine Mignard painted by her father P. Mignard, she holds her portrait standing in her right arm - - Like the previous engraving, this one is also formerly framed, we offer 3 identical views to show that the upper part is devoid of things which we see appear there because of the reflections of the window - - Some scattered foxing, especially the text part to mention, which is not really clean, also the interior window seems a little stained, always on the text part therefore -
- The framing is very correct, measures 35 x 51 cm and count 31 x 46.3 for "the view" - - Well referenced by Charles Leblanc in 1840 under the number 29 - - Jean Daullé: Abbeville 05/18/1703
- Paris 04/23/1763 -
