

PROANTIC
LE PLUS BEAU CATALOGUE D'ANTIQUITES

---

Paris - Manufacture De Dagoty - Coffee Service - Circa 1815-20

2 200 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Porcelain

Description

Paris porcelain coffee service (Dagoty) from the beginning of the 19th century, decorated with a diamond-shaped gold frieze on the edge standing out against a nankeen background. This service includes: a coffee pot and its lid, a teapot and its lid, a sugar bowl and its lid, a milk jug, six cups and their saucers. Height of the coffee maker: 25.5 cm - Top of the second jug: 20cm - Height of the milk pot: 19cm - Top of the sugar bowl: 10cm - Top of the cups: 6cm Diameter of the saucers: 13cm Restoration period - Around 1815/20 The six cups are marked with the sticker in red: "PL Dagoty in Paris" Very good state of conservation, gilding without wear, just a shock to the body of the sugar bowl and the wings of the cherub redone. Additional photos and information on request.

Dealer

Bils Ceramiques

Ceramic Specialist, Sales Purchase & Expertise

Mobile : 06.74.59.17.01

Lyon 69002

<https://bils-ceramiques.com>

The service of King of Bavaria Maximilian

Joseph 1st 1806-1825 is decorated with the same type of decoration, but pale blue, ordered when he came for the wedding of Marie-Louise.

Bibliography: Régine de Plinval de Guillebon, Dagoty in Paris, La Manufacture de porcelaine de l'Impératrice, Paris, 2006, pp.29-31. Additional information and photos on request