Description

Rare copy from the G. Charpentier et Cie Library, Publishers, 13, rue de Grenelle-Saint-Germain, 13, in Paris 1883; In Original Edition dedicated by his Wife Alexandrine Zola to Baron de La Calade (south west). Half bound in red morocco, ribbed spine, gilt title with red and black marbled covers and pink marbled endpapers. Dedication on the cover page for this novel from the series "Les Rougon-Macquart, natural and social history of a Family under the Second Empire by Emile Zola. The dedication of his Wife who replaced him is interesting and the provenance elitist. A page is taped with a little foxing, we will forgive for this copy of a Masterpiece of the Great Political Writer in addition
