Description

The Bacchantes vase is the emblematic vase of the Lalique company.

Still in production today, it was created in 1924 in white glass.

The original R.Lalique mold is unique and presents details not included in the new mold of the current vase.

This vase is gray glass with a green reflection and a white patina.

The vase is in excellent condition and has benefited from exceptional glass quality.

The signature is cast in raised block letters.
