Salon d'hiver in 1929. Pierre-Paul Emiot specialized in landscapes and seascapes in a singular style. Art critics of the time described him above all as a colorist "with a composition full of charm, (...) reporting enchanting visions, with the poetry of coasts charred by the sun". Pierre Paul Emiot strives to transcribe Mediterranean landscapes with an ardent and harmonious tone in the composition.

Dimensions: 33 x 46 cm without frame and 49 x 62 cm with its original wooden frame.
