

PROANTIC
LE PLUS BEAU CATALOGUE D'ANTIQUITES

Large Wall Sculpture Or Room Divider By Pia Manu

15 000 EUR

Signature : Jules Dewaele dit Pia Manu

Period : 20th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Other

Length : 300 cm

Height : 74 cm

Description

Large handcrafted wall sculpture or room divider-separator made up of three different segments (100x74cm each or 300x74cm in total).

Unique piece created by the Belgian sculptor Jules DeWaele, known under the pseudonym PIA MANU.

A great collector of fossils and trilobites, Pia Manu takes up this sculpture with primitive and rough sculptural forms, primitive forms created by the power of nature. In concrete, iron and pyrite. Signed Pia Manu on one of the three elements.

Signed. Around 1960.

Special order for an owner in Flanders (Belgium).

Four important pieces by Pia Manu from this same provenance are presented today by

Dealer

PSCHANTIQUES

objets insolites et de décoration

Tel : +33.(0)623.78.24.95

Puces de Saint-Ouen Marché Paul-Bert 96 , rue des Rosiers

Allée 1 - stand 43

Saint-Ouen 93400

@igmarstuer and @pschantiques. Representative of the Flemish Brutalists, he models or sculpts primitive forms with materials with a powerful or anti-poetic texture (as he himself calls them) using concrete, earth and slate.