Description

Mahogany chiffonier table with three identical drawers. Each of their facades has a central part in relief whose corners are quarter-round. The draw is done by a small brass ring. This small piece of furniture rests on turned legs with a wooden ring at the top and resting, in the lower part, on a square and a spindle foot ending in a brass shoe. Joining the legs, this piece of furniture has a slightly recessed interior shelf with edged strip. This living room table is topped with a slab of Carrara marble surrounded by an overhanging and openwork brass gallery.
