Description

Flora of the West Indies By François Richard De Tussac "The Cultivated Banana Tree" Original 19th Century Engraving on vellum paper (1815) after Pierre Jean François Turpin (1775-1840) Dimensions: 53.5 x 34.7 cm Dimensions at the bowl: 43 .8 x 28 cm Very good condition, the board is fresh and the colors are bright. Flore des Antilles by Tussac is one of the oldest illustrated publications on the flora of this region of the world. François-Richard de Tussac (1786-1827) was a Poitevin botanist who settled in Martinique in 1786, before becoming the curator of a botanical garden in Haiti. He then visited Jamaica before returning to France where he notably directed the Jardin des Plantes d'Angers (1816-1826). La Flore des Antilles, a work in 4 volumes, was published between 1808 and 1827.
