Description

Period Wooden Fireplace Screen with Tapestry,
19th Century

This fireplace screen, an authentic 19th century jewel, combines elegance and functionality. With a height of 108 cm, width of 70 cm and depth of 33 cm, it is adorned with a tapestry with opulent floral motifs, framed by finely carved gilded wood. The graceful structure with curved legs and the top decorated with sculptural decoration contribute to its aristocratic appearance.

This is a great piece for antique lovers looking to add a touch of historic charm to their home. In very good condition, this screen is ready to enhance a classic interior or become a bold focal point in a more contemporary setting. A room full
