Description

Superb and very large glass bowl or centerpiece on shower stand with solid silver frame in Louis XVI style. The glass part has a pretty decoration of ribbon knots and laurel garlands engraved with a grinding wheel as well as a fluted shoulder supporting the silver frieze. The silver parts consist of garlands of flowers and bows on the top of the cup. The foot is decorated with knots and laurel leaves. It dates from the beginning of the 20th century and bears the hallmark of the first title of the neck brace (950/000) as well as the goldsmith's hallmark of the Parisian goldsmith's company having operated since 1910 in 1914 at 98 rue-Vieille-du-temple in Paris. In good condition. (Note a chip on the top of the cup, visible in photos.) Remains very discreet given the imposing size of the
