Description

This table is molded. Its scalloped belt opens to a drawer.

The drawer is dovetail mounted to ensure perfect solidity. The drawer can be opened daily and hold many objects. It slides perfectly.

This table rests on four arched legs and each ending by a decorative wooden winding forming a spiral called volute. It is elegance, refinement, assured lightness.

The top of the feet is decorated with finely carved acanthus leaves.

The top is painted black (decoration later reported).
