Description

Rectangular game table, made in France in the second half of the 19th century Small opening table with top that rotates and doubles becoming a 90 by 90 cm square Formerly used as a gaming table
It still has the original green cloth inside Richly decorated with gilded bronzes on the edges and legs.
Herringbone cherry plating which designs, thanks to the grain, rhombuses and squares on the surface and on the underlying edge In good condition, does not require restoration.
Upon request we provide a quote for replacing the cloth
