Description

Signed: J.Causse inscribed: "Le Charon" (Julien Causse 1869 - 1909) No. 2520 Height: 64.5 cm | Base diameter: 18 cmJulien Caussé Bronze The signed bronze "The Thistle", created around 1890 in Belle Epoque France, is an impressive work of art that embodies the artistic sophistication of this period. Signed by J. Causse and labeled "Le Charon," this masterpiece was created by Julien Causse (1869-1909), a talented sculptor of his era. The central motif of the bronze is a female body surrounded by leaves, suggesting an allegorical representation of nature and its beauty. The choice of the thistle as a symbol gives the work a deep symbolism, as the thistle is often associated with strength, protection and independence. The artistic design of the woman's body, wrapped in leaves, is a testament to
