

Count Of Chambord By Raymond Gayrard

385 EUR

Signature : Raymond Gayrard

Period : 19th century

Condition : Etat d'usage

Material : Plaster

Width : 10

Height : 16

Description

Bust profile of the Count of Chambord by Raymond Gayrard (1777-1858). The profile is signed at the bottom, fixed on a wooden panel and framed in a wooden and gilded stucco frame from the Louis-Philippe period. Raymond Gayrard, student of Louis Boizot, is a sculptor and medalist who worked extensively for the Paris Mint. The Count of Chambord, nicknamed by Lamartine the child of the miracle, is the posthumous son of the Duke of Berry. Appointed last king of France in 1830 by his grandfather Charles , measures 43x34 cm

Dealer

18 antiquités

Tableau et dessin

Mobile : 0616985782

3 Rue Joséphine

Paris 75018