

Exquisite 19th Century Porcelain Biscuit Sculpture: Venus And Putti By A. Moreau

2 900 EUR

Signature : Sevres / Louis Auguste Moreau

Period : 19th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Biscuit

Length : 57 cm / 22.5 inch

Width : 30 cm / 12 inch

Description

Indulge in the timeless elegance of this exquisite porcelain sculpture capturing the ethereal beauty of Venus, accompanied by a cherubic putti. Crafted with meticulous attention to detail, this scene is a testament to the masterful artistry of Louis Auguste Moreau, a renowned French sculptor whose legacy endures through his unparalleled creations.

Features:

Subject: Venus, the epitome of love and beauty, is depicted in a moment of adoration, accompanied by a cherubic putti.

Material: Crafted from biscuit porcelain, renowned for its delicate yet durable nature, ensuring longevity and beauty.

Dealer

Osmanantique

Vente d'horloges, bronze et porcelaine

Mobile : +31651126214

Polderweg 6

Loenersloot 3634

Dimensions: Standing at a majestic height of 57 cm (22.5 inches) with a width of approximately 30 cm (12 inches) at its widest point, commanding attention with its presence.

Condition: This remarkable sculpture is in impeccable condition, meticulously preserved to retain its original allure.

Detailing: Every aspect of this sculpture is intricately detailed, captivating viewers with its lifelike portrayal and exquisite craftsmanship.

Signature: Adorned with the signature of A. Moreau, representing the esteemed Louis Auguste Moreau, a prominent figure in the renowned Moreau family of sculptors.

Origin: Marked with the prestigious Sevres insignia, indicating its origin from the illustrious city of Sevres, France, known for its fine porcelain craftsmanship.

About the Artist:

Louis Auguste Moreau (1855-1919) was a distinguished French sculptor, celebrated for his mastery in bronze statues and sculptures. Hailing from the esteemed Moreau lineage of sculptors, his legacy continues to enchant art enthusiasts worldwide with its timeless allure.

Immerse yourself in the allure of classical artistry with this captivating sculpture, a testament to the enduring beauty of Venus and the unparalleled craftsmanship of A. Moreau. Enrich your space with its grace and sophistication, elevating any setting with its timeless charm.