Description

Beautiful box in blown and cut crystal with its gilded and chiseled bronze frame. The hinged lid is cut with striped checkerboard patterns on the top then widens by a set of degrees to fit into the bronze frame, decorated with a frieze of roses and sun worked with a wheel. The lower part uses the same set of degrees in the opposite direction followed by a decoration of cut diamonds. The whole rests on a base with four shoe feet flanked by leaves. This box has its key. Work from the Charles X period.
