Description

Neapolitan School; school of Pausilippus; Napoli, Vesuvius, Italy: "napoli Da Posillipo 1902" Oil On Canvas 26 x 39 cm The school of Pausilippus (in Italian Scuola di Posillipo) characterizes a group of landscape painters, favoring the tradition of Neapolitan veduta, and which marked the Italian painting from the first half of the 19th century. This group became a school and takes its name from Pausilippus, a hill by the sea, located northwest of the Bay of Naples. History In 1820, in the workshop of Anton Sminck Pitloo, a Dutch vedutist resident in Naples since 1816, between 1825 and 1835, the artists Achille Vianelli, Gabriele Smargiassi, Teodoro Duclère, Vincenzo Franceschini, Beniamino De Francesco and Alessandro Fergola. The landscape genre, until then minor in Naples, became, with romanticism,
