Description

German School 19th Century, Portrait of a boy, pencil on paper 25.7 x 16 cm (view) Framed : 41.8 x 31.5 cm The style and execution are very characteristic of the German Romantic school. Above all, the very light way of drawing, without unnecessary effects, which is also common to the Scandinavian schools of the same period. With just a few well-applied strokes, he recreates a particularly endearing sense of life.
