Description

Add a touch of prestige and refinement to your space with this remarkable sofa by artist Zalszupin Jorge, renowned for his innovative and timeless design creations. Upholstered in luxurious velvet, this sofa has undergone careful and meticulous restoration, preserving its aura of elegance and charm. The wrought iron structure not only offers robustness, but also a subtle elegance that blends perfectly with its contemporary design. The precious Brazilian jacaranda wood legs add a touch of warmth and exclusivity, while the side details add unique functionality and style to the piece. A leather magazine rack on one side and an antique marble top on the other complete the composition, providing not only visual beauty, but also practicality and versatility. Whether you are
