Description

Charming binding for this little almanac allowing these ladies of the Restoration to chase away their spleen by having fun reading its nursery rhymes, short stories and other poetry. Or, sing romances and ditties, write annotations and memories while admiring one of its six finely detailed engravings. The texts are written by well-known people like Madame de Staël as well as by illustrious unknowns who could send their prose to this Parisian publisher Le Fuel for possible publication in the following edition. Note that its condition is remarkable for this type of work. Shipping in France and internationally
