

Tea Caddy, Wooden Box, Burrl Wood And Applications, Double Tea Box, 19th Century

385 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Other

Description

Taking the appearance of a rectangular box with a domed lid, here is a very beautiful tea caddy. In solid wood, finely applied with a burrl, and applied with two strips of natural material, with rosettes in high relief, decorated with brass circles, the box rests on 4 turned feet. The interior reveals two compartments closing with burrl applied wooden lids, and decorated with a socket button. Lid and keyhole decorated with an applied cutout.

Very good condition, with unfortunately some traces of time spent: a few chips on the back, clearly indicated in my photos, absence of the key, some wear underneath, and slightly curved interior covers.

European working, probably French or English, dating from the second part of the 19th century.
