Description

DESCRIPTION / Very beautiful violin-shaped center table, in brass and tortoiseshell boulle marquetry. The tortoiseshell here is of very good quality, the marquetry is patterned with foliage, scrolls and interlacing, on the top, the belt and the feet. This marquetry is remarkable because it integrates many details such as the 4 small cherubs in the center of the table on a tortoiseshell reserve, as well as many other cherubs and characters in the corners in particular. It has a very beautiful ornamentation of gilded bronzes with large falls with lion heads, which we find on the masks on the four sides. Perimeter ingot mold, downhill ingot molds, and shoes on the feet. Certainly a very beautiful model treated with great refinement. A belt drawer. PERIOD / Napoleon III circa 1860
