Description

HANDKERCHIEF

Hobday & Co.

London, England, 19th century

Steel

Length: 17.5 cm

(age-related wear)

Also known as a candle snuffer, this pair of polished steel candle wick scissors resting on three feet and with openwork handles, is marked Hobday & Co. London, with the word 'Patent' surmounted by a crown on the blade.

Speckles were used to cut burnt candle wicks to prevent them from falling into the melted wax.
