

Important Clock "the Two Fates" Attributed To Ferdinand Barbedienne 1810-1892

4 800 EUR

Signature : Achille Collas et Ferdinand Barbedienne

Period : 19th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Bronze

Length : 68 cm

Width : 30 cm

Height : 62 cm

Description

Important Pendulum "les Deux Parques" after the model of Ferdinand Barbedienne, 2nd half of the 19th century, the pendulum represents Aphrodite and her mother Dione draped in Antique, Brown patinated bronze, stamped "reduction Mècanique A.Collas, Achille Collas and Fernandinand Barbedienne signed the founding agreement of the Ferdinand Barbedienne Company and Achille Collas on November 29, 1837 and now work together, Barbedienne takes over the commercial management and Collas supervises the production. The Clock was built in three parts, the heavy bronze base gold plated with lion paws and burgundy red velvet covering serves as the base for the white marble in the middle of which is the clockwork. The conclusion is this exceptional and beautifully crafted bronze work

Dealer

Antiquitäten Hochheim

Antiques and European furniture 18th and 19th century

Tel : 0049 177 3046222

Mobile : 0049 171 4287308

Mainzer Str. 3

Hochheim am Main 65239

depicting Aphrodite.