Description

This small display case in light cherry wood opens with a rounded door, with a miter-cut frame, dark with a clear window highlighted by a brass rod with a cord pattern. This door is equipped with a functional original lock with entry and key. The upper rail is decorated with a floral garland frieze also in gilded bronze. The uprights are garnished with bronze-ribboned scraps. The curved feet, which feature similar patterns at the front, end in clogs decorated with acanthus leaves. The sides, crafted in the same spirit, are flanked by flat glass. The light cherry wood top is surrounded by an openwork and chiseled brass gallery. The interior, entirely covered in red velvet in perfect condition, offers two fixed shelves. This small display case will easily showcase your objects, your works or why
