Saint Lunaire The Old Church By Marcel Oudin

350 EUR

Signature : Marcel Oudin 1882-1936

Period : 20th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Water color

Width : 20,5 cm

Height : 26 cm

Description

The old watercolor church signed and dated 1932 and located Saint Briac Marcel Oudin was born on December 10, 1882 and died on November 11, 1936 in Paris. Coming from a modest family, he entered the School of Decorative Arts in Paris in 1900 at the age of 18. Despite a fragile constitution, he has an impressive capacity for work. He won first prizes in architecture and geometry and entered the competitions at the "Salon" where works by artists from the Society of French Artists were exhibited. At the "Arts Déco", he followed the teachings of Charles Genuys (1852-1928) he was named Knight of the Legion of Honor in 1930 for his participation in the reconstruction of regions devastated by the Great War. Finally, he is part of the main groups of architects of his generation: Graduate

Dealer

Galerie Hervé Péron
Tableaux modernes 1880-1950
Mobile : +33 6 63 61 17 91

28 passage Verdeau
Paris 75009

Architects of Decorative Arts, the National Society of Architects of France and the Group of Modern Architects. We owe him the old hotel Le Gallic built in 1926 in Dinard, the Celtic hotel in Saint Cast, the grand Hotel du center and that of the Panoramas in Saint Briac, he is also the architect of the golf club and the swimming pool of Dinard .