Important Louis XVI Style Oval Bowl Or Planter In Porcelain And Bronze

Description

Important Louis XVI style oval bowl or planter in celadon porcelain with decorations of white field flowers in light relief in a chiseled bronze frame. The cup is encased in a fine bronze decorated with gaudrons.

Two mobile handles of falling laurel tori framing the bust of a woman in a plastron hold the rush covering the upper border of the porcelain and join the foot following the arch of the porcelain.

The oval quadripod base has a rich decoration of grooves, acanthus leaves, oval rows of pearls and flowers

Polished and varnished bronze.

No accidents on the porcelain.
