Description

Precious cabinet in carved cinnabar red lacquer with two leaves and a drawer, revealing six small drawers.

The doors are adorned with a porcelain plaque decorated with birds flying among flowers. Each marked with a reputed signature : "Kinkozan zo," which means "made by Kinkozan". The reverse side of these leaves are decorated with phoenixes flying among the clouds.

The interior drawer fronts are carved with floral motifs (one pull handle missing).

The top is also carved with a pattern of pheasants and peonies.

Note a split at the joint between the two rear panels, due to the shrinkage of the wood.

Finely chiseled fittings, key missing.

Despite its small flaws, the finesse of the work
