

The Granaries Of A Castle: Beaver Top Hat And Its Carrying Box

180 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Linen

Description

Beautiful top hat in black beaver or "taupé", with satin edges. It comes with its original cardboard and leather carrying box, with a paper lining and a hiding space to store a pair of gloves. Top hats are inseparable from the image of the 19th century, their use continued in high society until the middle of the 20th century, and still today for occasional use in ceremonies or weddings.

Beautiful home accessory, to give an authentic and lively spirit to a property that is being restored. It is in very good condition.
