Description

Drawing on watercolor representing a scene in Biskra in Algeria at the edge of the desert.
We see palm trees and two figures.
The frame is in gilded wood.
Good condition.
This watercolor in the name of Biskra number 27 is signed lower right by Henri Verge Sarrat, Belgian painter and engraver, born in 1880 and died in 1966.
Eager for colors and landscapes, he sought new sensations during several stays abroad.
There are 2 fixings on the back to attach it to the wall.
20th century work.
Possibility of collection on site, or contact us for possible shipping.
