Condition : Bon état

Material : Earthenware

Length : 7 cm

Width : 4 cm

Height : 5,5 cm environ

Description

Very amusing bait in the shape of a hen brooding on its nest. By whistling into the spout provided for this purpose, you will have a shrill sound, but, by putting water in through its small hole in the back you will obtain a perky whistle whose intensity changes depending on the volume of water. The nest is made of glazed earthenware and the hen is made of polychrome biscuit showing wear following use. Nineteenth century.
