Description

Beautiful Art Nouveau flower pot from the Onnaing earthenware factory. The upper edge is decorated with a large purple chrysanthemum flower decorated on both sides with foliage and artichoke flowers in pastel shades of turquoise. The background of the decoration is green-brown. The golden yellow handles get their elegance from a small curved point in the middle which embellishes the opening. The four feet are quite marked because they are separated by a clear arch. The silhouette is quite light because the arch of the feet responds to the very curved line of the upper edge. Pure product of Art Nouveau, this flower pot belongs to a beautiful lineage of Onnaing earthenware of which we present another equally attractive model. Beautiful half-sun signature accompanied by the
