Description

French chest of drawers Louis Philippe mid 19th century. The wood is of the bramble of walnut.

Walnut brambles are flamed because they have many aesthetic designs. These drawings have complex, highly contrasting patterns and intricate veins on a naturally dark background of varying intensities. So the bramble of walnut wonderfully imitates a theater curtain.

This chest of drawers is equipped with four drawers, one of which is called "doucine". It is hidden in the upper belt of the chest of drawers. The drawers are mounted dovetail ensuring perfect strength. The drawers can be opened daily and hold many sometimes heavy objects. They slide perfectly.
