Description

Beautiful Restoration sideboard in burl mahogany, equipped with two large doors. Their central part is in veneer developed with an open book. This is highlighted by half-round sticks forming a frame. The original brass "up and down" lock is in working order. It is accompanied by an entry which highlights the passage of the later key. Inside we find an adjustable oak shelf on racks. The singing is in mahogany. It is possible to add other shelves if necessary. Above, this piece of furniture is fitted with two identical mahogany drawers which also have original locks with threaded entry and rear key. The uprights and the front of this sideboard are covered with double half-rounds in solid wood, highlighting the drawers and the sides of the piece of furniture. This set rests on a protruding molded plinth. The
