Description

Chimney stove from the Godin Foundries and Manufactures, Napoleon III period, made of cast iron. Inscriptions: molded on the blower: "Godin", "Aisne". Model exhibited at the Municipal Museum of Guise, it appears in the 1867 album of the Godin Foundries and Manufactures. It still appears in the manufacturer's catalog in 1903. The device, abundantly decorated, is designed to burn coal and coke. Combustion can be controlled by lowering or raising the blower, mounted on slides and racks, in front of the hearth.
