Description

Magnificent Parisian-made chest of drawers in rosewood, benefiting from a beautiful lemon wood marquetry. The body of this piece of furniture opens on the front with three identical drawers, in Rio rosewood veneer, inlaid with lemon tree marquetry forming a bouquet, scrolls and foliage. Around the edge, the composition is surrounded by two lemon tree fillets. This block of three identical drawers is in an ogee and miter cut frame. They are each equipped with an original lock in working order accompanied by an original chiseled round rear and entry key as well. In the lower part, a protruding drawer forming a plinth has a grooved molding on the top. Oak drawer sides and bottoms. This chest of drawers has an upper part in the shape of an ogee, inlaid with a composition of light wood. It simulates a
