from Iran, Central Asia and the Caucasus.
The muted colors of a shiny and soft wool contrast with the light, indigot, white, pink, orange, blue, red of all the patterns laid on the darker field, causing a striking and bright contrast.
These rugs are mainly dyed with natural, mineral and plant products.
The beautifully complex design reveals numerous tribal motifs and other stylized plants that we always find on these rugs.
These carpets are knotted in the Shiraz region located near ancient Persepolis which gave its name to Persia, now Iran.
Shiraz is located in the province of Fars, where the Gashghai tribes reside and produce carpets under the two names, Shiraz or Ghashghaï.
