

PROANTIC
LE PLUS BEAU CATALOGUE D'ANTIQUITES

Vesuvius And The Bay Of Naples Louis Thienon 19th

850 EUR

Signature : Louis Désiré Thienon (1812-1884)

Period : 19th century

Condition : En l'etat

Material : Oil painting on wood

Length : 41,5cm

Height : 32,5cm

Description

Vesuvius and the Bay of Naples, view from the Mergellina quay. Oil on wooden panel signed by the landscape painter Louis Désiré Thienon, son of Claude (1772-1846) close to the imperial family, official designer of Louis Bonaparte. Louis learns from his father and his uncle Jean Baptise Isabey. He travels through France, Europe as well as the Maghreb, whose landscapes he depicts in these paintings. This view of the bay is animated with characters with Naples and Vesuvius in the background. Presented in its period frame in stuccoed gilded wood with large palmettes. Bears the artist's signature at the bottom right as well as the date 1881. The scene is located on the back "Vesuvius, seen from the Mergellina quay. Dimensions: panel: 32.5cm/23.5cm Frame dimensions: 41.5cm /

Dealer

Antiquités BOLOT

antique dealer bourguignon

Tel : 0380291710

Mobile : 0685733254

16 rue Monge

Saint-Jean-de-Losne 21170

32.5cm